

What is a GIVER?

Definition: A Giver is someone who gives money, time, and talents for a missions project or to help missionaries who live in other countries.

1. How do you know if you are a Giver?

- God wants all of us to give, but you often give freely of your money, time, talents, and even your things.
- God is showing you ways that you can be a Giver.

2. What if your gift is small?

- God can multiply or stretch whatever you give.
- God cares more about your giving heart than how much you give.

3. Is money the only thing you can give?

- No, time, talents, and even the things you own are also important ways to give.

4. Can you earn money to give to a missionary or a missions project?

- Yes, perhaps do some work beyond your chores to earn extra money to give.
- Be creative and find ways to earn money with your friends or family.

5. How can you give your money to a missionary?

- Ask your parents or teacher at church to help you learn about people you can give to and about how money can be sent to them.
